

Invitation to join Barbara Tomlinson and Wabba Travel in Sicily Dec 01-09, 2013

We have designed an itinerary which is fantastic and our small group of 15 makes this very special.

A visit to Sicily is truly a feast for all senses. The Mediterranean island is a foodie's paradise, offering rustic fare that makes the most of local bounty. Crispy/creamy arancini – fried balls of rice filled with cheese and sauce – are mouthfuls of heaven. Give your stomach a quick break and visually devour the Baroque architecture of Catania or the fabulous mosaics of Palermo and so much more.

8 days of tours and lectures by Dr. Barbara Tomlinson

Starting with 3 nights in Palermo and the most exquisite of range of architecture from Arabic to Norman to Baroque to Art Nouveau. The visit to a private Noble House is a unique experience. A side trip to Selinute, Erice and Segesta will help you sense the wealth and importance of the Greek settlement from the 6thC BC.

En route to Taormina for a 5 night stay, visit the towns of Cefalu, with it's maze of charming medieval streets, and Messina, an important port with history dating to the 8th C BC. A sightseeing tour of Taormina is a must and a day visit to Siracusa one of the most beautiful sea ports. Another day finds us in Piazza Armerina visiting the Villa del Casale a Roman Villa built around the 3rd C AD. Tour Catania, a city of contrasts and smell the Orange Groves.

Ah there is nothing like Sicily under the tutelage of Barbara Tomlinson. Giving that humanities lecture everyday will help everyone keep up with the time line.
